Family Camp Speakers and Workers

Rev. Norman Moore became a Christian and was called to preach as a boy. He received his ministerial training at Pasadena College in San Diego, and the California Graduate School of Theology. His objectives in ministry are to win the lost to Jesus Christ, assist the Christian in sanctified discipleship.

Rev. Michael Adams is a full time commissioned evangelist in the church of the Nazarene. His ministry has taken him across the United States in revivals, camp meetings, retreats, missionary tours, youth camps, and special evangelistic services. He seeks to bring revivalism and evangelism to the church through a preaching style that is bible based.

Vance & Jeannie Sharpe sing all styles of music. They try to reach all age groups in their concerts/services. Vance and Jeannie always include their boys with a few selections in concerts/services. They try to reach all age groups in their concerts/services.

Dr. DuBois holds a dental practice in Kent, WA. He has always been involved in music, working with local choir directors. He leads worship and music for churches and finally, the leadership of his own group, Breath of Aire. He has a deep appreciation of the role that worship and music, play in the camp meeting setting.

Rev. Randy Calhoun is currently, Family & Discipleship Pastor at Harvester Church of the Nazarene. He has be a children's pastor for 24 years. Randy is married to Lisa, and has two children. He has been privileged to share the Word of God at many camps over the years. He wants to make sure that camps are saturated with God's Word.

Nursery Room is located in the Children's Chapel.

Pay Phone is located in the Dinning Hall. Incoming coming calls (emergencies only) can be directed to the pay phone at (573)783.8829 or (573)783.3534.

No Reserve Seating, out of courtesy to all who attend.
