

Jason P. Hill and his wife Jessica accepted the call to pastor Cape Girardeau First Church of the Nazarene on January 3, 2010. Before joining Cape Nazarene, Jason served on the pastoral staff of Family Church of the Nazarene in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma for nine years, joining with founding pastor Brett Rickey to watch God grow the church from a new start to over 800 in average weekly attendance. Jason accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior at a Vacation Bible School while in elementary school and received his call to full-time ministry at a church camp in high school.

Originally from Springfield, Mo., Jason received a Bachelor of Arts in History from Truman State University (Kirksville, Mo.) in 2000 and a Master of Divinity from Oral Roberts University (Tulsa, Ok.) in 2003. Jason met his wife Jessica while at Truman State, and they have two children: Jacob, 5, and Caitlin, 2. Jessica has a Bachelor of Arts in Communication from Truman and a Master of Management from ORU. She currently serves as the Resource Specialist & Public Information Officer for 2-1-1 Helpline in Tulsa, and plans to continue in this role remotely from Cape Girardeau.
